

TRAIN KILLS TWO MANDAN MEN

ORGANIZERS FOR RECALL BATTLE BEGINNING WORK

Task of Completing Local Organizations Faces Both Sides in Fight

LEAGUE CALLS MEETINGS

Four Mass Meetings Will Be Held in Fargo, Bismarck, Minot, Grand Forks

Organizers for both the Independent and Nonpartisan have started out lining up forces for the recall campaign. With some of the candidates in the field now making speeches the greatest task confronting the leaders of both sides in the campaign is the completion of local organizations.

In Burleigh county neither the league nor anti-league organization plans are completed, the only step having been taken with respect to organizing local women by Independents. A meeting of the league county executive committee may be called in the next few days.

A representative of the I. V. A. headquarters, in Bismarck last night said he had returned from Garrison, Washburn and other cities to the north lining up Independent forces, and attempting to complete local organization. State I. V. A. headquarters have not announced detailed plans for putting some ginger into the campaign.

League Calls Meetings.

Four mass meetings for the league were called by State Chairman Liederknecht, at Bismarck, Minot, Grand Forks and Fargo.

The Bismarck meeting will be held October 2 at which the league in the following counties are urged to be present: Bowman, Slope, Hettinger, Adams, Sioux, Morton, Golden Valley, Stark, Mercer, Oliver, Grant, Billings, Emmons, Logan, McIntosh, McLean, Burleigh, Kidder, Sheridan and Dunn.

The Grand Forks meeting will be held October 4 for the following counties: Towner, Ramsey, Cavalier, Pembina, Walsh, Nelson, Grand Forks and Benson.

The Fargo meeting is set for October 5 and will be for the counties: Stutsman, Wells, Eddy, Foster, Griggs, Steele, Traill, Barnes, Cass, Ransom, Sargent, Richland, LaMoure and Dick-ey.

The final mass meeting will be held at Minot on October 6 where these counties will be represented: Divide, Williams, Mountrail, McKenzie, Burke, Renville, Ward, Bottineau, McHenry, Rolette and Pierce.

Says Organization Threatened.

In a statement addressed to precinct captains, committeemen, delegates and all league members, the league committee declares that the "league movement never faced such a crisis as the present." It tells the league that "if we are to save our organization and our state we must all get busy at once and put our whole strength in the campaign."

The statement declares particularly against the I. V. A. constitutional amendments and intimated measures, asserting their success would cripple the league program.

Cass County Authorities Claim Big Game Captured

Fargo, Sept. 22.—The arrest of three men in Minot recently by officials of the Cass county sheriff's office has broken up an international ring of automobile thieves, according to a statement from the office of the state's attorney yesterday. The ring has operated in Fargo, Minot and other northern cities according to the statement.

The men are S. A. Collings, Arthur A. Norton and Curtis Fadden. They are in the Cass county jail here.

Sheriff Kraemer is on the way to Fargo from Bismarck today with a party and four cars which have been stolen in Fargo.

PARISH HOUSE OF EPISCOPALS IS REMODELED

Growth of Church Activities Makes Work on Church Necessary

MAKE SOCIAL CENTER

The parish house of the Episcopal church, where Sunday school, scout meetings, guild meetings, dances, functions and other activities are being carried on is being remodeled.

The work of the church has expanded so rapidly that it was found necessary to provide enlarged quarters for the Sunday school. The new parish house will have a seating capacity of about 150.

Improvements now under way, which will be completed in about three weeks, will, it is estimated, cost between $2,500 and $3,000. In addition a new furnace is being installed in the church and the church will be painted. The contractor of the parish house work is N. J. Shields.

The parish house when remodeled will be a real social center according to plans of Rev. Thomas Dewhurst. It is planned to open it with a function, probably a dinner for the church membership. A new hardwood floor is being laid and a kitchen installed.

INFANT DEATH RATE APPALS, SAYS SPEAKER

Greatest Factor in Increasing Span of Life is Reducing Infant Death Rate

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 22.—The greatest single factor in increasing the span of life is the saving of infants and children, Dr. E. L. Tuohy, of Duluth, Minn., told the National conference of Catholic Charities here tonight.

"There is still an appalling death rate occurring within the first year of life," Dr. Tuohy continued. "There is a wastage of 25 per cent. up to the eighth year. There is evidence to show that it requires an addition to the population of three and one-half to four to insure the ultimate presence of one new adult."

"There is a well-known unfavorable tendency for our native population to remain stationary or actually recede. Among the better educated, notably the college graduate, they are by no means replacing their own numbers."

Taking up the subject of the death rate, Dr. Tuohy stated that there is a very definite decline of the death rate from tuberculosis, where the educational work began some 25 years ago. Similar work as it will pertain to cancer is just beginning, he added.

Urges Charitable Attitude.

In speaking of the social worker, Dr. Tuohy said "Fargo is a good charitable attitude of these social workers toward the regular practicing physician. The medical profession, on the other hand is liable to have an inherent distrust of these newer workers, looking into demands partly their own. Neither side understands the other and this should be remedied quickly."

The doctor of a nation has a definite influence on the efficiency and longevity of its people, Dr. Tuohy stated.

Shipment of Essence in Small Box, Enough to Make $16,000 Worth of Liquor, Confiscated By State Agents.

Whiskey runners have begun to attempt to bring "concentrated booze" into this country from Canada, according to F. L. Watkins, state enforcement officer, here today.

Watkins and aids captured a car which he said was loaded with two boxes containing a combination of glycerin, bourbon essence, brandy essence, body preparation and coloring matter, in liquor form.

"The boxes were not more than 12 inches long and 16 inches high," said Mr. Watkins. "Yet they had in them enough of the essence to make 400 gallons of liquor when mixed with alcohol or home brew. With this small amount of material they could make $16,000 worth of liquor, figuring the selling price at $10 per gallon."

According to Watkins the matter was shipped from Montreal to Estevan, Canada, and brought into the country by the two captured men, L. Block, of Omaha, and a man giving his name as Collier, who said he lived in Los Angeles.

On Collier, Watkins said he found a "bootleggers dictionary" containing recipes for all kinds of drinks. The state agent believes that much of the cheap booze imported from Canada is now made of essence and a poor grade of moonshine.

"The Canadian authorities raided a plant on the other side of the line which we had been watching," Watkins said. "The bootleggers said a man could drive up there and leave in the evening with a load. I believe that he used essence and cheap home brew to provide the bootleggers."

French-Germans Co-Operate.

The French and German authorities in the district were conducting the rescue work in the close collaboration. A German hospital train has arrived at Frankfort and a French train also is near Oppau.

The town of Oppau is a scene of utter desolation, more than a third of the houses having been destroyed, while the roofs of the others were swept off as if by a whirlwind. Here also many were killed or injured.

Excess Pressure Blamed.

The explosion is attributed by some to excess pressure on two adjoining gasometers, the waste of this part of the works being pulverized. Where the gasometers stood is now a funnel-shaped hole 150 yards wide and 45 yards deep, while twisted girders and debris of every description lie scattered about. For a distance of several hundred yards not a wall is left standing.

The directorate of the company is quoted as saying that the explosion occurred in a storehouse containing four thousand tons of nitrous sulphates, which had previously been examined and was believed to be free from danger of explosion.

PUBLIC WORKS URGED TO END UNEMPLOYMENT

State Engineering Society Directors in Meeting Here Adopt Resolutions

Steps were taken by the directors of the North Dakota chapter of the American Association of Engineers, in meeting here, "to have engineers of the state, in their respective communities, to advocate such needed and desirable public works as the finances and requirements of their communities permit."

This step is taken, the directors say in an announcement, in the belief that "a return to more normal business and business on the part of everyone is the surest and quickest means of reducing unemployment in the country" and that "the cessation of much public improvement and works has resulted in some unemployment for reasonable public works will not only make the engineering field more active but will also provide work for a host of both skilled and unskilled labor."

Among other activities of the society it will advocate the early passage by Congress of a law increasing the amount of federal aid for highway improvement. Communications have been directed to the state's representatives in Congress asking them to support such legislation, and also to support proposals for the consolidation of many federal departments, as a matter of economy and efficiency.

CHICAGO TRIBUNE FIGHTS SUIT STARTED BY CITY OF CHICAGO, UPHOLDS FREEDOM OF THE PRESS

Chicago, Sept. 22.—The $10,000,000 libel suit of the city of Chicago against the Chicago Tribune, filed today with the federal court here, asking the court to apply a general law of libel to the newspaper, is being fought on the ground of the freedom of the press.

If granted the demand would have the effect of placing the suit on the grounds of sufficient evidence.

The suit involves a question of whether a newspaper may be sued for libel to the extent of its circulation, and virtually be put out of business, if the suit is won.

The libel suit grew out of statements made by the Tribune, the city's "electronic censor," in its editorial columns, for the purpose of municipal funds are expended.

The city contends that the Tribune and its editorial expressions, in which the suit is being fought, are "damaging the credit and reputation of the city."

G. I. Solum, Well Known in Slope Country, Former Candidate For Commissioner of Insurance, and Nelson Luther, Member of Mandan City Commission, Are Fatally Injured—Deep Cut Prevented Driver From Seeing Approaching Passenger Train Running Late.

G. I. Solum, real estate dealer and acting police magistrate of Mandan, and Nelson E. Luther, city commissioner, died last night as the result of injuries received when the automobile driven by Solum was struck by the northbound Northern Pacific passenger train at the blind crossing at the city waterworks pumping station three miles north of the city.

Solum, who was conscious until about half an hour before his death, said he did not see or hear the train until it was upon them.

Mr. Solum was driving Luther to the waterworks plant. There is a deep cut through which the north branch of the N. P. runs. Mr. Solum drove onto the tracks going down a grade before he saw the train, and never had a chance to avoid the crash.

WETS ORGANIZE WORLD UNION

International Meeting at Lausanne to Combat Spread of Prohibition

BY MILTON BERNER.
Special Cable to The Tribune.
London, Sept. 21.—The International Anti-Prohibition office is to co-ordinate facts and figures and bring closer co-operation between the wet forces throughout the entire world.

It may be established in Switzerland as a result of the big world conference of wets to be held at Lausanne, Sept. 23 and 24.

This will be the first wet international meeting ever held.

For 16 years the wets have held such conferences; the last being at Lausanne several weeks ago.

At this dry meeting 500 delegates were welcomed by the president of the Swiss republic and 22 governments sent official delegations, including the United States, France, Belgium, Holland, Germany, Poland, Switzerland and Scandinavian States.

Dry Students' League.
It decided to form the World's Student Federation against alcoholism, of which Harry Warner, of the United States, was made general secretary.

Its purpose is to create, propagate and deepen among university students the study of causes, effect and prevention of alcoholism.

Partially aroused by this and partially by spread of dry campaign since America became dry, the wet forces decided also to meet at Lausanne.

The sponsors were the International Committee of Commerce in Wine, Liquors and Spirits, with headquarters at Paris, and the National Association of Swiss Anti-Prohibitionists.

Count De Mun, of Paris, president of the international committee, will open the meeting, followed by R. Von Tobel, president of the Swiss wets.

General Reports.
General reports are to be made on state of wet organizations and their activities in France, Holland, Switzerland, England, Belgium, Italy, Spain, Portugal, Rumania, Greece, Czechoslovakia, Yugoslavia, Poland and Argentina and singularly enough—the United States and Canada.

But most of the time will be spent in considering the International Anti-Prohibition Office, whose chief functions will be to co-ordinate in the fight against the dry wave.

The recent dry convention at Lausanne forgot old war enemies, the Germans partaking on equal terms with the French and English.

In the wet convention it will go a step farther, French, Italian and German are to be the official languages.

SURVEY SHOWS BUSINESS GAINING

Decided improvement in general business conditions is shown by the following reports, covering the more important basic industries.

These reports were received in a national survey of the trend of business.

WOOL.
Boston, Sept. 21.—New England woolen industry is operating at 97 per cent of capacity, after months of depression.

Massachusetts, which makes four-tenths of American woolen goods, is employing 105 workers to every 100 a year ago.

Wool consumption by New England mills is nearly as big as during the boom in the latter part of 1919, and the industry is close to capacity, says Federal Reserve Bank of Boston.

Spring outlook excellent.

Extent of the textile boom is shown by the fact that the industry was only 41 per cent normal last January, against 97 now.

CLOTHING.
New York, Sept. 21.—Room in New England textile mills is reflected by return of men's clothing manufacturing to the normal operation of 10 weeks a year.

Retail stocks of men's garments are reported low all over country. Rochester clothing factories making best record, Chicago second, New York third. Prices becoming stabilized.

Women, however, have started a mild buyers' strike, and condition of women's wear industry is very poor, about 60 per cent capacity. Dresses in most demand. Orders for coats and suits small.

STEEL.
Pittsburg, Sept. 21.—In last two weeks, 15,000 steel workers in this district have returned to steady employment. At Homestead and Braddock, the U. S. Steel Corporation is working 75 per cent of its normal force four days a week and expects to resume on full-time October 1.

Heavy railroad orders for steel and iron are on the books, awaiting straightening out of railroad finances. Tipton and wire mills working full time, with months of orders ahead, in finished products, sheets are very active. Prices at present trend upward.

SOFT COAL LAIR.
Wheeling, W. Va., Sept. 21.—Production by bituminous coal mines has fallen off somewhat in last fortnight. Total output of all American mines so far this year about 90,000,000 tons behind same period of 1920.

Trade in steam coal is gaining, steadily, as factories re-open. Buying by consumers lags. Compared with pre-war years, bituminous output is not discouraging. About 345 tons of soft coal being mined now for every 375 in same period 1914.

FREIGHT.
Washington, Sept. 21.—Amount of freight handled by railroads is steadily increasing. Eight cars of freight are being hauled for every nine cars moved during corresponding period of 1919.

Biggest gains in car loadings lately have been in merchandise, coal and miscellaneous freight.

Railroads are getting out of the hole. Class One roads are showing net profits of nearly five per cent a year.

Engineers to Meet.
A call has been issued for the first of the fall's meetings of local engineers. The Bismarck American Association of Engineer's Club will meet Friday night for the beginning of a busy winter program. About twenty-three local engineers are members of the club and within its jurisdiction are members in the vicinity as at Washburn, Mott, Linton and Ashley.

The A. E. E. club considers itself a promising civic organization of the city and will interest itself in affairs affecting public service and public welfare.

Geo. E. Hanson is secretary and expects increasingly larger meetings as members of the State Highway Commission engineering staff return to their Bismarck headquarters.

Repair Needed.
John Johnson, of Minneapolis, imagined he was going over the top while confined in the city jail. He made a dive for the water faucet, and off came the spike of the German helmet in a jiffy, according to police. A flood of water followed and there was a hurry-up call for a pumper.

PLANE SOLD FOR $115.
Uitenhage, S. A., Sept. 21.—An Aero airplane in good condition was sold here on a court order, for $115, the highest bid offered by a Port Elizabeth firm.

WHEAT.
Chicago, Sept. 21.—Wheat is now being exported from the United States at a rate which, if sustained for a year, would take every bushel of the total crop.

Sept. 1, wheat exports passed 15,000,000 bushels a week. Government's September forecast is for a crop of 754,000,000 bushels of spring and winter wheat, lowest since 1917, but about the same as in 1913.

CORN.
Des Moines, Sept. 21.—Low price of corn this year will be partly counterbalanced by the big yield, estimated now at 3,100,000,000 bushels against 2,446,988,000 bushels in 1913.

Farmers probably will average 25 to 26 cents a bushel for their corn crop. Exports huge.

LUMBER.
St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 21.—Following a slack summer, sales of northwest and Pacific coast lumber in this district are gradually improving.

No boom has started in lumber, but mills report steady though slow progress toward normal. This is reflected by recent stiffening of wholesale lumber prices, which now average 35 per cent below war peaks.

SHOES.
Boston, Sept. 21.—New England boot and shoe factories are running 60 per cent capacity, with women's dress shoes at 80 per cent.

Orders are small, for merchants are buying close to the market. General situation unchanged since March.

FERTILIZER.
Columbus, Ohio, Sept. 21.—Sales of commercial fertilizer are 50 per cent normal. Farmers are not buying fertilized this fall. Falling off in orders is greatest in south.

Fertilizer industry expects 1922 to show a distinct pick-up, says Marshall A. Smith, president, Smith Agricultural Chemical Company.

CASH REGISTERS.
Dayton, Ohio, Sept. 21.—General business has been wobbling, but is surely improving. That's a composite of opinion of heads of National Cash Register Company, which makes nine-tenths of the world's cash registers.

This company expects to keep its huge factory going full-blast this winter.

CHEAPER MEATS.
Chicago, Sept. 21.—Chicago packers' wholesale prices on meats and hides in many lines are lower than before the war. Beef is 47 per cent lower than a year ago.

Retail butchers report public demand throughout country is for cheaper cuts. Receipts of hogs at Chicago during August were 17 per cent larger than August, 1920.

LICENSE TELLS TALE.
London, Sept. 21.—The advances of William F. Palmer, 70, toward Rachel Reed, an elderly widow, might have ended in marriage, had not a dog license, which he sent her, helped to reveal that he was married already.

NO ARRESTS IN FORKS MURDER

Boy Tells of Seeing Man Leave Woman's Place

Grand Forks, N. D., Sept. 22.—No arrests have been made yet in connection with the murder of Mrs. Bloom Seliger, 81, whose body was discovered Tuesday morning. The woman was bound and a pillow and other bedding was bound over her face, causing suffocation.

Arlo Wilson, aged 9, son of F. A. Wilson, reported that he saw a man in Mrs. Seliger's room about 11 P. M. Monday as he was on his way home from a movie, but police place little weight on his story.

An automobile belonging to Otto Vigne of Mesquack, was stolen Monday night from a garage near the murdered woman's home, but may have been used by the murderer in his escape.

The inquest into the murder was opened this morning by Coroner Robert McLean.

Robbery is believed to have been the motive for the crime, although small amounts of cash were not taken.

FARGO WANTS SWIMMING POOL

Proposes Special Election to Provide Place

Fargo, Sept. 22.—The board of park commissioners of Fargo in session adopted a resolution asking the city auditor to call a special election on Oct. 28 for the purpose of submitting to the voters the question whether the park district shall issue bonds for the construction of a swimming pool.

The resolution was introduced by W. H. Porterfield, a member of the board, and calls for an appropriation of $50,000. It is proposed by the park board, should the proposition carry, to have the pool constructed in one of the city parks, the preference being Island park. The resolution will be filed at the city auditor's office late this afternoon.

"Pressure has been made upon the board of park commissioners by businessmen of the city for a swimming pool," said W. J. Clapp, secretary of the board. "For some time we have given the matter our personal attention and also have had the assistance of C. L. Meller, park superintendent, and Geo. L. Tibert, city building inspector. The cost of such a pool was estimated at from $40,000 to $60,000."

BREAK UP BOY ROBBER GANG

"Bulls" Capture the Youthful Chief Who Promptly Turns State's Evidence.

"LITTLE WOP" IS STAR

Two of the Band Are Seized at Their Desks in School—Juvenile Delinquency Charge Is Greatest Injury to Their Pride.

New York.—"Well, bulls, I guess you got me right. So long as I'm going to do a bit, I'll turn state's evidence."

With this announcement couched in correct criminal terminology, "Paddy the Kid," leader of a unique robber band, prefaced the strange story of his outlaw outfit's activities from the date of organization to its disbandment, following the arrest of its five fearless members. "Paddy" was addressing detectives in the East Twenty-second street station, and what he said was corroborated by others of the gang. Read their story; you will be surprised.

First permit an introduction—the gang: Leader, Patrick Murphy (Paddy the Kid), fourteen, of No. 317 East Twenty-first street; Joseph Agassano (Jimmy Valentine, also The Little Wop), seven, of No. 345 East Twenty-first street; Matthew Agostinello (Skinny), nine, of No. 310 East Nineteenth street; Walter Michaelsky (The Polack), ten, of No. 346 First avenue, and John Bubsha (The Dummy), who lived up to his "alias" and refused to give any information about himself.

Gang Applauds "The Little Wop."

Well, a long time ago—so long the gang hardly remembers it—these boys saw several thrilling moving pictures (the story is now being transmitted from the gang through Detectives Meyers and Gillman) and then tried out a few "stunts." "Golly!" was the unanimous cry after Joseph had opened a safe the boys found somewhere, "the little wop is a Jimmy Valentine!" And the detectives say they were right, only he does the trick by listening to the tumblers fall.

Organization followed with a capital stock of one pistol "found" in an automobile. Courage increased with repeated successes until, for the last 90 days, residents around and in Joseph Worked the Combination.

East Twenty-second street have complained of many daring depredations by a robber band. Meyers and Gillman were assigned to capture the outlaws, but had no success until the other day when passing the Standard Gas company's plant at Twenty-second street and First avenue, they heard Murphy say:

"It'll be a cinch to crack this crib. This factory is easy to get into."

A little later the officers saw Murphy start to climb the fire escape. It was the beginning of the end. They captured the outlaw before he reached the third rung. Murphy told the names of the rest of the gang and two of them were arrested at their desks in a public school. When the whole outfit had been rounded up in the East Twenty-second street station, a charge of juvenile delinquency was registered against them. This charge was the greatest injury their pride suffered.

Joseph Left His Gun at Home.

Every member appeared proud of his "alias" and not in the least deterred by arrest. Joseph, three feet tall and weighing 99 pounds, sucked at a lollipop said to be a part of the loot obtained by the gang. "I used to carry a loaded gun," Joseph volunteered, "but it got heavy and I left it home. My father has a now."

"Well," commented another member, "I guess we'll bust up now, anyway."

The boys said Joseph worked the combination of a safe in Empire Hardware Company, No. 316 East Twenty-second street, a week ago, but it took the whole gang to pull the door open. They got $108 each.

SALVATION ARMY BUDGET WILL BE SOUGHT IN CITY

Meeting Called at Elks Hall Friday Evening to Plan For Drive

GENERAL AID IS ASKED

Plans for raising the Salvation Army budget for 1922 will be discussed at a meeting to be held in Elks hall Friday evening.

The drive for the budget is to begin next Tuesday. The amount is fixed at $2,000, which is believed by the committee to be a small budget in view of the demands expected to be made on the organization.

The Friday night meeting is called by P. R. Fields, chairman of the citizens' Salvation Army advisory committee and head of the Elks. The Elks will lead in the drive this year as they have for the last two or three but they ask the aid of other organizations and of individuals.

Teams will be selected Friday night to make solicitations in the business district. Mr. Fields said today, and probably teams will be named to cover outlying districts.

UNIFORMITY IN JUSTICE URGED BY BAR MEMBERS

International Association To Meet in Peking, China, in October

Cincinnati, Sept. 22.—The second annual conference of the International Bar Association, which is to be held in Peking, China, October 24 to 26, will institute the beginning of an attempt to promote the cause of uniform justice in the world and so ultimately of international peace, according to Dr. R. Masujima of Tokyo, its president.

Dr. Masujima is now in America, after attending the recent convention of the American Bar Association here. This body was invited to ally itself with the international organization and lawyers of the American bar were invited to participate in its conferences. He will also attend the Canadian Bar Association meeting before returning to Japan.

The first meeting of the International Bar Association was held last year in Japan. Its object was defined to be "to promote justice by the cooperation of the members of the bar throughout the world." Its aspiration, Dr. Masujima said, was to attain permanent world peace by the power of a commonly accepted standard of justice.

The principal business before this year's convention will be a conference on the points of view regarding justice, which, according to Dr. Masujima, differ widely in different countries, despite the fact that the world has seen but two systems of jurisprudence, the civil law and the common law.

The international association, he said, should begin its work in America and Europe where the common law, which had inaugurated democracy, was upheld.

"In our opinion, the International Bar Association is an indispensable auxiliary of every political enterprise of which the League of Nations is an example," Dr. Masujima said. "It is an instrument to bring nations together in better understanding, particularly the East and West, whose modes of thought are totally different."

"It should acquire in time among all nations authority to dictate standards of international justice to be enforced by all the sanctions at the command of civilization. This would prove the one essential bond of union and understanding between the Occident and the Orient."

CHICAGO WOMAN STOLEN BY FIJIS

Rescued by Posse Headed by Her Husband After Exciting Experience on Island

San Francisco.—Kidnaped for ransom, carried into a sandalwood forest in the mountainous region of one of the Fiji Islands and rescued by a posse headed by her husband was the thrilling experience related by Mrs. Jules Whitley of Chicago on her arrival on the steamer Tahiti.

"One beautiful evening I was walking in the garden of our hotel at Suva when eight natives accosted me," Mrs. Whitley said.

"One placed a handkerchief in my mouth while the others tied my hands."

Carried Her Into the Back Country.

and feet. They then carried me out into the back country.

"Several attendants of the hotel saw the abduction and notified my husband. Mr. Whitley immediately organized a posse and gave chase. For over six hours they followed the trail of my captors until they came upon a hut where I was being held hostage."

"The bandits planned to hold me prisoner until my husband paid a ransom. I overheard them discuss their designs. I was threatened with death should I make an outcry and a guard was placed over me until dawn, while the others slept."

"They seemed to be particularly fascinated with my hair, and the way they acted it was apparent that blondes were infrequent visitors to the island."

"Fortunately my husband foiled the plans. With his posse he broke in the doors and after a small skirmish rescued me."

MOONSHINE AIDED HER SONS

Mother Sold Liquor to Keep Boys in School, She Tells Oregon Judge.

Portland, Ore.—Mrs. Lena Mayson wanted her two children to go through school, so she had to find a way to make enough money, she testified in court.

Making moonshine whiskey proved the most profitable undertaking she could engage in—but the police discovered her still and shot holes in the profits.

"I couldn't make enough money with my rooming house, judge," she said, "and I simply had to get my children through school. I've been buying them clothes and everything."

Judge Deich, however, had information to contradict the woman's plea and denounced her for saying she was providing for the children when she was only buying them extras.

The judge sentenced Mrs. Mayson to five days in jail and to pay $200 fine on the eve of the graduation from grammar school of the two youngsters.

Black Bear Interrupts Ball Player's Angling

Freeland, Pa.—John Novak, a professional baseball player and former football star, while trout fishing in Hays creek heard a rustling in the bushes on the opposite bank and saw a full-sized black bear as it jumped into the water and swam toward him.

The bear, after emerging from the water, took a drink from the stream and then proceeded quietly on its way into the woods. Novak gave a terrified yell, causing the bear to strike a foster girl until it was out of sight.

FAINTS IN STATION

Police Matron Finds Roll of Bills on Girl After She Had Made an Outcry About Being Robbed—Looking for Work.

New York.—Lieutenant Tutz looked up from his work behind the desk in the West Forty-seventh street police station one day to see a white faced young woman clinging to the rail, regarding him timidly.

"Please," she said haltingly, "I am hungry. All I have had in two weeks has been a piece of pie and a bottle of ginger ale. I am very hung—" and her voice trailed off and she sank to the floor.

Had Gone Without Food.

By the time the lieutenant reached the front of the desk she was unconscious.

Policemen cared for the visitor until the arrival of a doctor. He diagnosed the case as malnutrition.

After she had been revived the girl told the police she was Millie Renner, twenty-four years old. She said she had formerly lived with an aunt in Jersey City. Three weeks ago she came here, hoping to find employment. She had never worked before, she added. What little money Miss Renner had was soon gone, and since she had walked the streets in the day and slept in hallways and parks at night.

Find Roll of Bills.

Miss Renner was booked on a charge of vagrancy and sent to the West Thirty-eighth street station, where there is a matron. At that station there came a surprise for the police. The prisoner made an outcry, declaring she had lost her money. The matron, believing that lack of food had brought hallucination, sought to quiet her by telling her she had no money. The prisoner insisted, and raised such an outcry that the matron searched her. Wrapped in a newspaper about the young woman's waist she found a roll of bills amounting to $488.

This last phase of the case was told in the West side court where Miss Renner was taken. The magistrate sent her to Bellevue hospital for ten days, during which time she will be under observation.

Chicago.—Two pretty young women, wives of Edward Breuer, await the trial of their husband on a charge of bigamy. The wives are the best of pals.

Breuer, formerly an army sergeant, left his first wife to go west. In Evansville, Ill., he met, wooed and won Miss Frieda Shoen.

"What's the use of being jealous?" asked wife No. 1, who was Miss Sophie Daehr of Syracuse, N. Y.

"It would not do one bit of good to get angry and, besides, I could not dislike Frieda. She is a dear."

STORY OF SEAGULLS IN M'LEAN CO. RECALLS EARLY DAYS IN UTAH

Salt Lake City, Sept. 22.—Reports from North Dakota that seagulls recently appearing in McLean county had destroyed grasshoppers which threatened to ruin the crops, called attention here to a similar incident in Mormon pioneer life in Utah.

Today a notable monument stands in the Mormon temple grounds in Salt Lake City in honor of the birds that saved the early settlers from threatened starvation in 1848. It is a pillar about 100 feet high surmounted by a bronze seagull. At its base are inscriptions detailing the reason for its erection with illustrations by Mahonri Young, the Utah sculptor.

The first pioneers trekked across the plains into Salt Lake valley in 1847. Brigham Young stipulated that there should be intensive cultivation of the land; crops were grown and the farmers looked for a bountiful harvest the next year. Then crickets in huge armies swooped down upon the crops. The farmers tried to eliminate the pest without success. Transportation at the time was difficult, means to obtain foodstuffs from distant points were limited, and the situation looked critical.

When, practically every one had given up hope of saving any part of the crops, the seagulls, termed by old Mormons as the "messengers from heaven," appeared. They did not touch the grain but warred on the crickets and in a short time had ridden the fields of the pest. There are no records to show from whence the birds came.

The seagull is Utah's sacred bird. It is unlawful to kill it. Many of the people of this state hold it in affectionate memory and during the summer thousands give of their bread to the birds that may be seen in large numbers at Saltair, a resort a few miles from here on the Great Salt Lake.

What Of Girl Star's Social Life? Mrs. Calhoun Explains

Movies and morals are being discussed everywhere as a result of the Arbuckle case. What price must a girl pay for a movie career?" people ask. The question is answered in this series of articles written especially for the Tribune by Mrs. Florence Calhoun, mother of Alice Calhoun, the Vitagraph star who in five years has risen from a $5-a-day extra to a $1000-a-week performer.

BY FLORENCE CALHOUN

Mother of Alice Calhoun, Vitagraph Star, the Youngest in the Movies

Alice Calhoun is still a minor, still a flapper, still at the period when most girls delight in school pals and friendships, when "a party" is the sole end of existence.

It invariably shocks other school girls to learn that social pleasures are almost taboo for a young movie actress.

Not because she would not delight in them just like other girls, but because there can be no dances, clubs, sororities, bacon bats for a girl who must rise before 6 in the morning to start by 7 for a drive of 22 miles to the studio where she must make up and dress in costume and be ready to go on a set by 9 o'clock; and who finishes her day's work by 5 or 6 in the evening.

We are all made to be sociable and every movie maid must call upon her morale when she sacrifices the rightful pleasures of youth simply to sleep in order to be fit for the next day's routine of the studio.

And as soon as one serial is finished, there is the scenario for the next to be studied.

To endure the swift rush of events in the cinema country, one must have a sense of humor, and humor, they say, is one of the important morales for all humans.

There are a few artists who have grouched a lonely path through the jungle of movie difficulties, delays, harassments and embarrassments, but most of the so-called "fortunate" personages of movie-land have the spirit of fun in their hearts.

dians have been invited by the district from reservations in Wisconsin and Oklahoma, and from Nebraska.

"The youth of America are being brought up on the cigar sign Indian," said Miss Caroline M. McIlvaine, librarian of the historical society, "and have no conception of the dignity and importance of the American Indian. The society is interested in Indian Day from the educational standpoint. We want to see develop a more last and true conception of the original American Indian."

VACANT LOTS BEING TURNED

Many Planning to Build in City Next Spring

"I have sold more vacant lots since September 1 than during the rest of the year preceding," said a local real estate man today.

"This indicates that there are a great many people in Bismarck who are planning to build homes this fall or next spring. If conditions develop as they are anticipated there will be a large number of houses under construction early in the spring."

Another local business man predicted that not less than 50 residences would be built for occupancy by the owners in the spring.

He predicts a real building boom for Bismarck.

Base Ball Game Feature Of Picnic

The twenty teachers attending the picnic given last year's teachers in honor of the new teachers of the high school, are all very enthusiastic today over the splendid time they had at the picnic. The party was taken in cars to the Twin Buttes on Dr. Schipper's place. A large camp fire was built and the picnic supper was served to the guests who were seated around the fire. Following the supper a base ball game between the new teachers and last year's teachers was staged. Mr. Neff acted as captain for last year's teachers, Mr. DeBolt was captain for the new teachers, and Mr. Martin was official referee and umpire. The result of the game was a 2 to 1 in favor of the new teachers. Following this exciting game the camp fire was rebuilt and the remainder of the evening was spent roasting marshmallows and singing songs.

SHE WAS JEALOUS

BY RUTH AGNES ABELING

She was jealous! When his sisters came to visit them she'd spend half of her time trying to bring out of him confessions that she was much more attractive mentally, physically and spiritually than they. When he offered to share his umbrella with the 10-year-old girl in the apartment upstairs and they turned laughing in the gate, she turned a cool cheek for his kiss or denied him entirely and looked hurt all evening.

He was a generous soul and so when he met the woman next door getting off of the car and assisted her with packages, as he came in the door his wife reminded him that she had been up town that very afternoon and had had to carry her own packages home. She never left him alone a second with her younger sister and always found an excuse for sending her home or getting her out of the way.

Sometimes she cried and sometimes she scolded, but she always did one or the other if she discovered that he picked up one of the girls at the office who went his way and let her ride in his car.

When he went to the club dances unless he wanted a stormy scene when he reached home he had to act as though he hated every woman there and only suffered with them because his men friends wanted to dance with his wife.

Really he was quite a nice man when she married him. But this constant and so very apparent worry of hers about other women aroused his curiosity about them. He wondered what charm it was so feared and, human enough, he endeavored to discover!

And she never realized that it was her continual attracting his attention to other women by her jealousy of them, that started the trouble.

With the Movies

AT BISMARCK

In the third Jack Hoxie feature coming to the Bismarck Theater tomorrow, Jack Hoxie pulls some stunts that are absolutely new. Without doubt he is one of the greatest performers in the western movies. He is a daring rider and no stunt is too dangerous for him to attempt. In "Dead or Alive" he is called upon to perform dangerous stunts, but he does them all so easily, that they do not look quite as dangerous as they really are.

After trying several leading ladies, Jack Hoxie has secured Marin Sais to support him. It is to be remembered that Marin Sais played opposite Jack in his last big serial "Thunderbolt Jack". She is not alone good looking, but she is one of the cleverest horse women in California. These two make an admirable pair, and inasmuch as

Theater Symbolizes Honor of Northern Pioneers

Since the world war, when the name of Canada was written indelibly on the scrolls of fame, and before, Americans have admired and respected the sturdy colonial who are building a second great North American nation. Canada has been symbolic of determination, courage, and loyalty.

The same sterling qualities which characterize the northern pioneers form the foundation of "Lying Lips." Thomas H. Ince's second big Associated Producers special, which will be shown at the Rex for the last time tonight.

The grit and resourcefulness of Blair Cornwall, a young Canadian ranchman, his conviction of right and his refusal to surrender to wrong, form the pivotal theme around which revolves one of the most poignant and purposeful photodramas of many months.

In the leading male role of Blair Cornwall, House Peters offers a

SENSE OF HUMOR HELPS STAR IN "COME-BACK" ON STAGE THIS YEAR

Mrs. Carter as Lady Kitty

BY ALICE ROHE.

New York, Sept. 22—A sense of humor is more precious than wealth. It gets you over the most difficult hurdles in life. Never lose it!

"Always remember that in every woman, no matter how bad or vain or frivolous or selfish she may be, there is a latent response to good."

Mrs. Leslie Carter was the speaker. The first observation had to do with the unprecedented triumph of her welcome back to the New York stage after nine years' absence.

The second referred to that particular quality she gave to the role of the transgressing Lady Kitty, which won for her on this memorable first night the overwhelming ovation as a fine comedienne.

Center of Interest.

Nothing in recent theatrical history has equalled the interest centered in Mrs. Carter's reappearance after her retirement following her break with David Belasco, who made her famous in the heavy emotional roles of Zaza and Dulbarr.

The return in the role of the frivolous, artificial Lady Kitty of 25, gave the story was written for them, it suits them to a "T."

"Dead or Alive" is a western picture, full of action, but unlike most of the cheaper western pictures, there is little shooting. The story is an excellent one, and has a good plot to it. The scenes follow one another in sequence and are not simply put together in order to furnish material for the stars. "Dead or Alive" is truly a great western picture.

characterization more human and realistic than any in his long career as a screen star. Florence Vidor, who is co-starred with Peters, is seen as Nance Abbott, the English girl, a part full expression to that sense of humor which Mrs. Carter says has been her sustaining force since she was the most acclaimed actress in America.

"But there is quite as much art—if not more—in comedy as in tragedy," said Mrs. Carter. "Indeed, playing the role of the woman clinging to the semblance of youth—a transgressing woman—and keeping the sympathy of the audience is much more difficult than playing tragic and emotional roles. These latter play themselves."

"No one can quite appreciate just what it meant to me to 'come back.' There is nothing in the world quite so tragic as the life of an actress who 'can't come back'."

"The life of Lady Kitty" in this Somerset Maugham play, which shows the tenacity with which woman clings to her youth to hold the thing she loved, is really a symbol. Life is often very hard on women—what would it be for as without that gift of humor?

"I'm glad I could give my friends a laugh. I feel that where there is comedy there is real art. Wherever there is humor there is the great human appeal."

"If we can make people happy we have accomplished something."

which offered unlimited scope for her dazzling beauty and stage abilities.

PROBING COSTS OF UTILITY

Minot, N. D., Sept. 22 The Northern States Power company last $34,500 in the operation of the Minot plant, which serves Minot, Berthold, Bismarck, Dickinson and Towner, during the fiscal year ending Dec. 31, 1920, according to testimony given here before the state railroad commission.

The hearing before the state board, which opened Monday and will probably be concluded late today, is for determining the operating costs of the utility in Minot. The hearing was expected to likewise determine the valuation of the Minot interests of the Northern States Power company but owing to the inability of engineers, who made an appraisal of the plant in Minot for the railroad commission, to be present at the hearing in Minot this week, the board has decided to hold a special session in Bismarck Oct. 2, when the valuation will be required into. Engineers engaged by the state board to value the Minot plant and affiliated interests have fixed the valuation at $726,225.00. This figure does not include working cash capital or so-called growing value. The valuation arrived at by Hagenah & Erickson, Chicago engineers, for the Northern States Power company, was $952,201. This figure includes the two items not included in the figure of the state board's engineers.

THE STATE'S OLDEST NEWSPAPER
(Established 1873)

FIRST JOB
You boys, who wanted to go on to college but couldn't afford it, and now are adrift in your first job—
Not Newton, Darwin, Kock, Pasteur, Franklin or Edison had a university education.
If you have the real stuff in you, you'll come to the top, college or no college.
The School of Hard Knocks is the greatest college.

GRADE-CARDS
You want your child to get good marks in school. But don't get discouraged if the marks are low.
Paul Ehrlich, in school, was a great failure. He made his worst botch at chemistry.
Yet Ehrlich, when he got out of school, gave the world a great discovery—salvarsan.
Trouble was in his teachers, not him. They taught him old stuff. He had a different kind of brain—not absorbent, but creative

WEDDING
After being twice married and twice divorced, J. M. Taylor and Rebecca Brewer, of Blackey, Kentucky, have married a third time.
Love passeth all understanding. Psychologists say love is the twin of hate, on the theory that extremes meet, hence even perfectly matched couples have occasional spats.
Would you like to get rid of your wife? Or husband? After a few weeks apart, you'd probably change your mind. What married couples at loggedheads really need is a vacation from each other, not divorce.

DAREDEVILS
Daredevils form a suicide club in London, membership limited to 13. Initiation includes driving a motorcycle through a plate glass window.
Self-preservation is man's first instinct. It's a rare case where that instinct can be smothered by a craze for thrills.
Nearly every one has passed through a danger big enough to admit him to the suicide club if the danger didn't have to be premeditated. When conversation lags, stir things up by asking: "What's the narrowest escape you ever had from death?"

WILLS
By a will filed in Chicago, Ephraim Henry Atwood will forfeit $130,000 if he ever smokes a cigaret. His younger brother, Ivan will pay the same penalty if he ever drinks champagne.
That's bad for both. Since Adam and Eve, forbidden fruit has had a powerful lure. Many of us don't want to do a thing until it's prohibited—like the folks that never cared for liquor until the country went Volstead.

RHINE
American soldiers on the Rhine dread the day when they will have to come home. So do the Germans, who owe us about $244,000,000 for maintenance of the Yankee military cops, but still are treating them like star boarders.
That's the report brought from Coblenz headquarters by Lieutenant Kie Cody.
German diplomacy centers on courting the favor of America. Besides, what's a trifle like $244,000,000 to a Germany that has agreed to pay an indemnity of $34,000,000,000 in bonds?

DISARMING
Disarm entirely and completely abolish war, says a resolution adopted at the World's Methodist Conference, in London, representing 32,000,000 church-goers in many countries.
That's shooting at a higher target than the political diplomats who will attend the disarmament conference in Washington, which intends to go no further than limiting armies and navies. But it's the target the people want—complete disarming.
Diplomats can start disarmament. Churches and schools could finish the job. In time, they will.

DOWN
In Chicago, which leads the country in compulsory reduction of living costs, the elevated railroads and gas and telephone companies are ordered to "show cause why their rates should not be reduced."
The command comes from the Illinois commerce commission, whose chairman, Col. Frank L. Smith, says: "The best energies of America are now being directed toward bringing about pre-war levels for all essentials. This is the supreme effort of the national government at Washington and the state government at Springfield."

That's debatable as regards the Washington attitude. But there's no argument at all against the necessity of public utilities deflating with the manufacturer and the wage-earner.

GUNS
President Harding, strong for limitation of armaments, doubts that complete disarmament ever will be possible. He says, "There may never be a time without the necessity for armed forces in every government."
"Never" is a long word.
Two centuries ago, men said, "They'll never be able to stop dueling."
But dueling has been stopped. So also will man when he becomes civilized, stop war—dueling between nations.
The people, by refusing to go to war, will stop it if the governments don't.

Seager Wheeler, Canada's wheat wizard, gets $30 a bushel for Early Triumph, his new variety of seed wheat. It ripens 10 days earlier than any other wheat and yields 8 to 10 bushels more to the acre.
That helps all farmers, by increasing their possible profits. It also moves the wheat belt 100 miles farther north, putting millions of acres under cultivation.
Wheeler, on his Saskatchewan farm, has a wheat production record of 82 bushels an acre. In international expositions he has won the world's championship five times.
Men like Wheeler and Luther Burbank will be the outstanding figures of our time, when a really civilized posterity rewrites history and puts wars, kaisers and Fatty Arbuckles where they belong—on a back seat.
The dinnerpail will be the really important thing when the United States becomes as thickly populated as China.

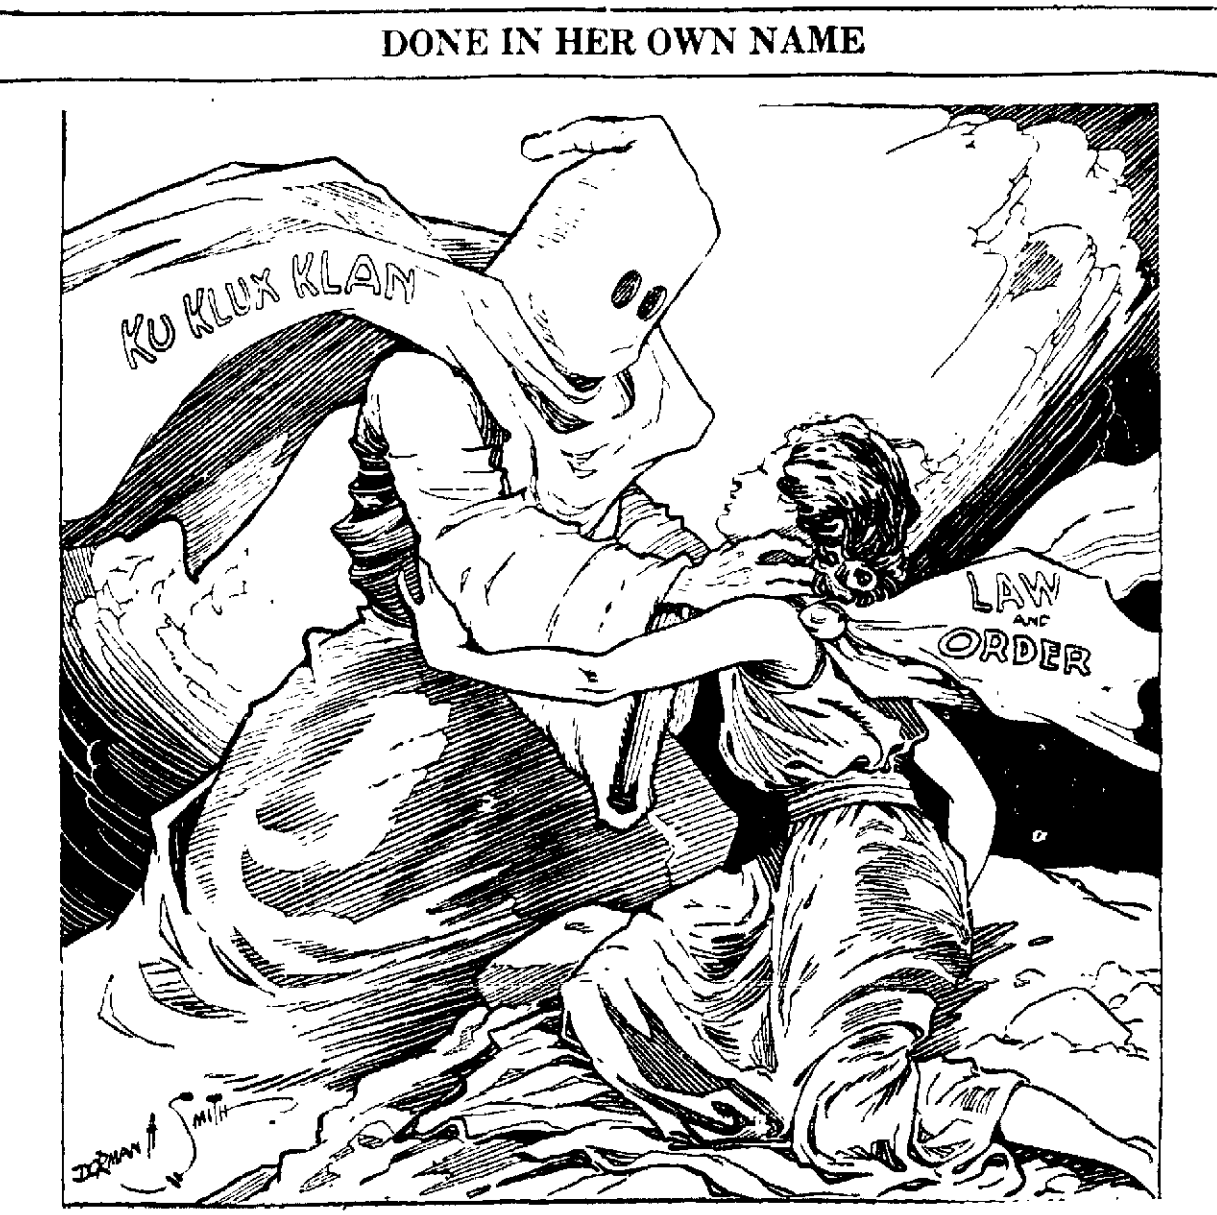

CONTRAST
That the terrible famine conditions that obtain in Russia are largely chargeable to the political, industrial and agricultural chaos and not the drouth, as soviet leaders would have the world believe, is shown by the current wheat production in France.
France has suffered not less than Russia from the drouth that has been general throughout Europe. But in spite of the most adverse weather conditions in recent times, the French people are harvesting the largest wheat crop of any year since before the war. And it is only 10 per cent less than the average pre-war crop.
Millions starving in Russia, one of the world's greatest grainaries!
Plenty in France, notwithstanding the ruination of hundreds of thousands of acres of agricultural lands by the war.
That is the difference between national and individual sanity and industry, and national and individual insanity and sloth.

WHO BORROWS MOST?
The events that send most people to the money lenders are the arrival of the stork and the empty coal bin, says a report issued by the Illinois association of licensed lenders.
Teachers seem to be harder up than any others, for they are the most persistent borrowers. Landladies come second, traveling salesmen third, then, in order, machinists, switchmen, stenographers and nurses. Only one in 70,000 loans is made to an undertaker.
Young folks, deciding what career to follow, learn, from the above, the lines of work where the shoe pinches tightest.

PROSPERITY
Miles of headache statistics are telegraphed to the Federal Reserve Board, by member banks all over the country. The board's experts play solitaire with the figures, and find that volume of business is gaining in grain and cotton centers.
Couldn't be better news. What happens in the plowed fields and plantations is what really counts. They lead, to good times or bad, and the less important element—cities—follow.

WORK
Forty-six out of every 100 inhabitants of Chicago work in "gainful occupations"—meaning for pay—says a census analysis. That includes everyone, from baby to grandpa.
Compare that situation which probably is typical of most cities, with conditions 50 or even 25 years ago, when a woman in business was an exception.
Every American seems to be reaching out for financial independence. The ancient job of "father and support of the family" is going to the museum.

BURDEN
Here's an average family of five, living in New York. How much of a tax burden does it have to carry? Five hundred and forty dollars a year—$250 for Uncle Sam, the rest in state and municipal taxes. That's what the Real Estate Board of New York tells Congress.
Nearly as much as the average family's normal income!
You can load a lot of straw on a camel, but finally the last straw will break the camel's back. Cutting taxes, by reducing government spending, is not only urgent, it's an absolute necessity.

RECALL CAULDRON
(By the Pot Boil)
"Tribune grows chummy with Gov. Frazier," is the editorial heading over a strictly news story in a recent issue of the Fargo Forum.
As a sample of rank propaganda that kind of "head-lining" is in a class by itself.
Have the issues become so bitterly joined that to print any side but the I. V. A. is unpardonable and convicts the paper doing such a thing of being "chummy" with the Nonpartisan League? Hardly so. Readers are entitled to both sides of the recall election, whether it comes in the form of a statement from Lynn J. Frazier or R. A. Nestos.
The Tribune is willing to submit to the Forum's indictment that "it grows chummy with Frazier," if in so doing it can get both sides of the issue before the people between now and October 28.
After insinuating a chummy relationship between The Tribune and Gov. Frazier, The Forum proceeds to use the same interview which was sent from Bismarck by the correspondent of The Associated Press, an association which can hardly be convicted of being "chummy" with any clique or faction—the interview appeared in the St. Paul Pioneer Press, an anti-league newspaper circulating widely in North Dakota.
The people are demanding more and more that news columns be purged of editorial comment and be restricted to the news from which most people can make the proper deduction with the aid of the editorials where opinions belong.
As the campaign progresses, The Tribune proposes to give both sides of the controversy without fear or favor. From time to time, according to the Forum's head writer, it will convict itself of being "chummy" with this or that faction from which the news may emanate. Newspapers which are fatuous enough to dedicate themselves body and soul, boots and saddle, to political propaganda may "not grow chummy" with the news sources, but they prostitute their high calling and wholly overlook the responsibility of being a newspaper first and an advocate afterwards.
The Tribune proposes to print the news whether it emanates from I. V. A. or league sources, even at the expense of being "chummy."

MANDAN NOTES
Plea For No Tax On Musical Instruments
Mrs. L. N. Cary of this city, president of the North Dakota Federation of Women's clubs is urging local club women and club women of the state to protest against the proposed tax on musical instruments. Mrs. Cary calls attention to an article prepared by Mrs. Anne Oberndorfer of Chicago, national Federation of Women's club, in which she says that the members of the National Federation of Women's clubs are sending a large amount of correspondence to members of congress asking them to vote against the proposed tax of musical instruments. This proposed tax would put music in the luxury class and would menace the development of music in America.
Mrs. Oberndorfer concludes her articles with "The National Federation of Women's clubs is probably the most powerful and influential organization of women in the United States. Its members, aroused by the news that congress would even deign to consider such an obvious destructive measure, are keeping vigilant eyes on Washington as a precaution."

INSTITUTES SUIT FOR DAMAGES
Lester L. Meads of Mandan, formerly of Dunn Center, was fined $109 in justice court at that point yesterday on charges of writing a worthless check and has retained counsel to fight the case. A check given by Meads was returned to the endorser marked "Not Sufficient Funds." Dunn county authorities were appealed to and they authorized the arrest of Meads here. He was taken into custody, held three days and yesterday taken to Dunn Center where he was arraigned and fined. Officials of the company with whom Meads is connected today phoned from Fargo, asserting that they had taken care of the alleged check prior to the arrest of Meads in Mandan. A suit for damages and false arrest and imprisonment was indicated.

DEVELOPMENT OF INDUSTRY IN SOUTH FEATURE OF BIRMINGHAM CELEBRATION
Birmingham, Ala. Sept. 22—Birmingham will celebrate its fiftieth anniversary October 24 to 29 with an exposition and historical pageant depicting the development of the South's leading industrial city from the building of its first house in 1871. Today the city has almost reached a population of 250,000.
President Harding has arranged to visit Birmingham on this occasion, spending the entire day of October 26 here. On his arrival he will ride at the head of a parade in which all the military units of the state will participate. His guard will consist of 100 members of the American Legion in uniform.
Later in the day the President will be the chief speaker at the laying of the cornerstone of the new Masonic Temple here, which has been under construction for nearly a year and will cost $1,000,000. The event will bring together members of the fraternities from all over the South and a number of its dignitaries from beyond.
President Harding will also make an address at Birmingham-Southern College, at exercises of welcome for the college's new head, Dr. Guy E. Suavey.
The pageant will be a record of Birmingham's remarkable industrial development. Its chief episode will show the mining of coal from ore and limestone within sight of the steel plants of the city, fabrication of plates for shipbuilding, their transportation down the river in a subsidiary of Birmingham's steel industry that builds great ocean liners, which in turn carry the city's iron and steel all over the world. No other city is said here equals this combination of favorable circumstance.
Other episodes will depict the faith of the pioneers in naming their village after the great English manufacturing center, their unshaken confidence after the crash of the first great boom, the acquisition of the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad Co. by the U. S. Steel Corporation at the time of the 1907 panic through the assistance of President Roosevelt, the ten year period starting with 1908 in which the city grew from 120,000 to 220,000 and its transition since 1910 from a source of raw materials to a manufactory of all kinds of finished iron and steel.

ADVENTURE OF THE TWINS
By Olive Barton Roberts
Away went the Twins through the waves toward the bay where Mr. Fisherman had his big net spread out to catch as many of the Wiggles as he could. Nancy hadn't any trouble at all unhooking two of the corners and Nick shouldered the other two and swam away as easily through the water as though he were lifting the mosquito netting off the baby's bed.
"Hey, there!" called out a voice, sharply. "What are you doing? Where are you taking us?"
The Twins looked back and were surprised to find that they had ever so many creatures prisoners in their net, snails, pawns, crabs and queer fish of all kinds.
The person talking was the queerest ever, a big flat fellow with a whip of a tail and two funny eyes on top of him. Really he was so odd looking that Nancy and Nick quite lost their voices with astonishment and did not answer at once. How would you feel, my dears, if the door-mat should suddenly address you, a sort of three cornered kite-shaped door-mat with one long raveling of a tail?
"I say," repeated the creature sharply, "you are not Mr. Fisherman, are you? And why are you taking his net away?"
"We—we are helping Cap'n Pennywinkle," stammered Nancy, for the creature looked so fierce she was frightened. "He wants the net."
"So do I," snapped the creature. "And you are taking my dinner with you. I eat a dozen shrimps and a dozen crabs and dozen prawns for my lunch and you are preventing me from having them. I'm Mr. Flatfish Flounder."
He said it as importantly as though he were announcing that he were the president.
"But how do you get in?" asked Nancy.
"Oh, that's easy!" answered the Flounder. "I know a way."

ROAD BUILDING

DURABILITY OF ROADS VARY

Classification of Passenger and Freight Highways is Predicted by Chairman Diehl.

Freight roads and passenger roads are probabilities of the comparatively near future in congested sections of the country, according to Chairman George C. Diehl of the A. A. A. good roads board, who has sent a communication to this effect to the office of the chief of engineers of the War Department. Mr. Diehl thus comments on the up-to-date highways problem:

"There will never be a time when all roads are of equal durability and carrying capacity. Highways and railroads are analogous, in that they are both designed to carry traffic, and general rules which have been developed through scientific management of railroads apply as well almost invariably to highways. The heaviest locomotives and rolling stock are carried on roads like the New York Central and Pennsylvania and Union Pacific. Their use over lighter constructed railroads would ruin the roads in a comparatively brief period.

"There must come a classification of highways. Over class 1 the heaviest motortrucks and trailers would be permitted; each truck should have large figures conspicuously placed on the sides to indicate the total weight that it was permitted to carry; operators and owners of trucks should be prosecuted for using the heaviest trucks on roads designed for lighter traffic. It would be comparatively simple to enforce such provisions, as there seems to be no defense of the proposition permitting one or two heavy trucks to ruin an investment of many thousands of dollars on the lighter constructed highways.

"At the road intersection the highway capacity could be indicated, as the highway department should, I believe, have a traffic department under a chief traffic engineer, having to do, not with construction and maintenance but merely with the control of traffic. It is extremely likely that it would result ultimately in a system of freight roads and passenger roads, and that wider and parallel roads would result ultimately in a system of freight roads and passenger roads, and that wider and parallel roads

I should say not; she has an idea that I have a five-foot shelf of bank books.

Pop: Not by going up, Johnnie.

A CLOSE DIAGNOSIS

Doctor—I don't like your heart action. You've had some trouble with angina pectoris.

Young Man (sheepishly)—You're partly right, doctor, only that ain't her name.

SHE KNEW.

He: Yes, if there is anything in a person, travel will bring it out.

She: Yes, indeed, especially ocean travel.

IN THE CHILDLESS ERA

Going to the circus?

Yes, I don't want to, of course, but I'll have to take my wife's dog.

TAKES WORK.

The world owes every man a living. Maybe. But you're not to be persistent if you want to collect.

She: You'll be late.

She: I'll be there.

He: I'll be there.

She: I'll be there.

FARMER BACK OF GOOD ROADS

Seasons Do Not Wait and Crops Must Be Sowed, Cultivated Reaped and Marketed.

The farmer or rural dweller, in certain sections, for a long time stood in the way—he wanted the roads, but he didn't want to pay for them. He did not realize that in the long run good roads pay for themselves out of savings made to the community in haulage of people and merchandise. But the farmer today is reckoning in units of time, for seasons do not wait and crops must be sowed and cultivated reaped and marketed at the right time. Therefore the farmer is now back of the road improvement.

Much Good Road Building.

Last year recorded an unbroken record of building activities throughout the United States. A few years ago some narrowly bounded community might have done something to make its roads within its borders better. Such an act, however, was of little use for a community is only as good as its roads. The nation as a whole is now building its roads. The nation as a whole is now building its roads. The nation as a whole is now building its roads.

B.H.S. ASKS SUPPORT FOR FOOTBALL

FAST TEAM ON LIST FOR 1921 GRIDIRON GAMES

First Game Probably Will Be With Dickinson Here on Sept. 30

OFFERING SEASON TICKETS

Support for the Bismarck high school football program is asked of citizens generally. In announcing plans for the season, Principal DeBolt of the high school states that the sale of season tickets has been decided upon as the best method of financing the team. Under the plan a season ticket will be sold for $1.50, providing admission to every game played. When the season ticket plan was decided upon it was thought there would be three games now it is likely there will be four games making the offering a real bargain to the football supporter. Dickinson high school probably will open the season here on Friday, September 30. Definite word is expected within a day or two.

Take Minot Trip
The high school team will go to Minot to play Minot high school on October 7. Minot is reputed to have one of the best teams in the state this year.

The local team will play in Mandan October 13 and will play Jamestown here two days later, on October 15. It was necessary to schedule the two games close together, because the Jamestown schedule was practically filled. Mandan will play in Bismarck October 28 and Valley City will come to Bismarck for a game in November. All the games will be played at the city ball park.

Alumni Aid
The team is working out regularly under Coach "Gene" Swanson and is making good progress. With a wealth of material and some experienced men around which to build a fighting machine Coach Swanson expects to put in the field a team equal to the best high school will meet. A scrimmage with alumni of the high school was held the other night and it is expected a scrimmage will be held with the alumni school team this week.

QUIMET LOSES TO ST. PAUL'S STAR GOLFER

Former Holder of National Open and Amateur Titles Goes Down

St. Louis, Sept. 22.—In one of the most thrilling matches ever played in a national amateur championship, Harrison R. Johnson of St. Paul, Minn., champion, yesterday defeated Francis Ouimet of Boston, formerly holder of the national open and amateur titles by taking the 95th hole, 4 to 3, and winning 1 up after a match so close at all stages that the outcome was in doubt until the last two putts hung on the very lip of the cup.

Those hanging putts which refused to drop were emblematic of the evenness of the contest and also signified why both players failed to gain advantage of each at various stages of the game, for both wasted putts at critical times.

Ouimet was the third former champion to fall, this far, but Robert Garner survived handsily by defeating T. D. Armour, of Scotland, 1 and 3, and the present champion, Chick Evans, after trying with Bockenkamp of St. Louis, this morning, unleashed an unbeatable brand of golf which soon squelched the local youth.

Jones-Hunter Play Today
Evans' margin was exceeded by Bobby Jones, who won from O. F. Willing, of Portland, Ore., 9 and 8, by shooting a 73 in the morning and a 70 in the afternoon. This victory gave the southern star the right to meet the British champion, Willie Hunter, in the third round tomorrow, as Hunter after meeting bull dog opposition finally defeated James Manion of St. Louis, 2 and 1. Jesse Guilford, by eliminating Dewey Weber 3 and 2, and Boon E. Sweetser of New York by downing L. E. Bunning of Chicago, 4 and 2 kept the east represented among the bidders for the crown while R. E. Knepper of Sioux City, Ia., champion, by overcoming Ben Steir of Seattle, 7 and 6 made himself the Far West representative in the third round.

Today Johnson meets Guilford Evans plays Sweetser, Garner matches skill with Knepper, and Hunter will try British skill against the redoubtable Jones.

MRS. BABE RUTH SAYS: We're Pulling For Homer Per Game In Big Series, And It Yanks Win, George'll Do It

BY EDWARD TIERNEY.

New York, Sept. 22.—Mrs. Babe Ruth has edited the dictionary. She has scratched out the word "impossible." She considers the word quite unnecessary as far as a bulky husband is concerned.

Wherefore it was resolute confidence, not a hope and optimism that shone in her eyes when she said: "I think George ought to make a home run in every game of the world series."

That is Mrs. Ruth's ambition. You bet she thinks Babe can do it!

Did you notice the name? No, the home-run champs' wife doesn't call him Babe. To her he's George.

Mrs. Ruth is as little as Babe is big. She has a small rounded figure, auburn hair that is short and curly, large eyes of a deep violet and a happy voice.

Happy? Well, what woman wouldn't be? Millions of eyes focused on her husband paying homage to his prowess. And women in unprecedented numbers going to baseball games, even though many know nothing about baseball, just to see the famous Babe bat out a home run.

Jelous Mrs. Ruth laughed. "Of course I'm not! I want the women staring at George and smiling at him—and I think how lovely I am."

They come to see me too? Well, maybe some do. Yes, I do see men looks directed my way. And I suppose women do comment. Sometimes they have picked out the wrong one—and I have lots of fun listening."

Mrs. Ruth smiled. No, she wouldn't tell what she had heard. But apparently it wasn't distressing.

The Bambino's wife goes to every game the Yankees play in New York. She always sits in box 56 at the left corner behind the Yankee dugout. Sitting there she can see Babe as he ambles in after smacking out a home run and he acknowledges her smile of praise along with the plaudits of the crowd.

"George has been in three world series before," Mrs. Ruth said. "These were in Boston before he began his home-run career. But now he is the greatest world series player."

"What a triumph will be his to help win the world championship after breaking all records!" Yes, I think he can make a home in per game. Wouldn't it be splendid?"

"But George will never do it—or try to do it—just for personal honors. He wants the team to win. It is a better strategy he will bunt. And everybody knows that he can bunt. The very day he made his fifty-fifth home run he beat out a bunt. George wants to win home-run laurels and batting laurels—but the good of the team comes first."

Mrs. Ruth is sad about just one thing. She did not see Babe smash out that fifty-fifth home run Sept. 15—the wallop that broke his own 1926 record.

"I go to the Polo grounds every day," she said, "but I can't get there until after it had happened."

The home-run king's wife used to travel with the team. For the past two years since the Yankees established in their own apartment here she only attends the games in New York.

The Ruths have been married eight years. They live in a six-room apartment with a private dining room in the Ansania hotel. Mrs. Ruth has a chauffeur and all their meals are served in the hotel.

On the big davenport in the dining room was a collection of nearly a dozen dolls. It looked as if Babe presented her with a doll every time he made a home run.

Other presents from the successful Babe—whose salary is huge and whose bonuses for extra home runs are satisfying—are a secret. Mrs. Ruth doesn't seem to care much for jewelry. The only thing of the sort in evidence was a splendid silver and platinum bar pin set with 10 diamonds.

JOHNNY KILBANE MAY DEMAND $100,000 PURSE FOR HIS NEXT APPEARANCE

BY ROY GROVE.

Cleveland, Sept. 22.—The next promoter who digs into his jeans for the wherewithal to stage a feather championship scrap is going to do some deep digging.

Promoters McGinty and Dentsch tangled $80,000 in front of Johnny Kilbane's eyes to get the champ into a ring with Danny Frush and to see if the "old master" had hit the skids.

It was a dirty fight full of regrettable incidents, but Johnny demonstrated fully that he still is the Kilbane of old, for when Frush's seconds revived him, the Baltimore challenger's body was so spotted with the marks of wallops that he looked like a red-spotted leopard.

Kilbane undoubtedly will hold out now for a purse of $75,000 or $100,000 to defend his title again.

Tex to Pay More.

If Tex Rickard is the man behind the guns, Johnny probably will tack on a few thousand more, for Kilbane never has forgotten the slight Rickard handed him when he invited champions of all other classes to attend the Dempsey-Carpentier mill and failed to invite the feather king.

Rickard has long been figuring on staging a Kilbane fight and had offered Johnny $40,000 to appear in New York. Kilbane turned him down cold—and got $60,000 for the fight in Cleveland.

Kilbane, well off financially, cares little whether he fights again soon or not. His one ambition is to keep the crown until spring, when he will have held it for 10 years.

Other contenders probably will refuse to meet the champ in Cleveland, for Kilbane's last-minute announcement that he would not fight unless judges of his own choosing were named, gives the feathers the impression that they cannot get a fair deal with him here.

A howl—a thousand howls—have come up over the foul in the Kilbane-Frush battle.

About the Foul.

I was at the ringside, not six feet from where the unpleasantness in the first round took place. This is what happened:

During an exchange of blows Kilbane claimed Frush fouled him. It was a lame excuse, as Frush was never near Kilbane. Kilbane turned to Referee Kelly to protest. Kelly paid no heed. Frush continued to wallop. That enraged the champ, and he drew Frush toward him with his glove back of Danny's neck and deliberately "kneed" him.

Kelly sent the two men to their corners and rather than stop a fight that had been under way only a couple of minutes, which would have forever killed boxing in Cleveland, he gave the men a chance to recover, and ordered the fight to go on.

Kelly's job, be commended. His action was fair as both fighters had fouled although Kilbane deserves censure as his foul was deliberate.

hands rest separately on the handle of the bat, his left hand grips the bat hump at the end while the right rests partly on the left hand and partly on the bat.

This grip is one usually taken by the golfer in driving.

Meusel says that the grip is a natural one with him.

I have no special reason for holding the bat in such a way, except that I think it gives a greater accuracy in meeting the ball," he says.

Some managers have wanted me to change and hold it like the majority of ball players do, claiming that I would be able to hit the ball harder if I gripped the bat with both hands.

But I have noticed that a golfer with practically the same hold can send a golf ball pretty far so I can't see where a change would benefit me.

INDIANS GAIN ON YANKEES IN PENNANT CHASE

Series in New York This Week Expected to Decide the Race

New York, Sept. 22.—The New York Yankees held the lead over the Speaker's Cleveland Indians by one point in the American league pennant chase today.

Cleveland beat Boston, 5 to 1, yesterday with Caldwell pitching, while New York was idle. New York will play a postponed game with Detroit at the Polo Grounds today, and tomorrow opens a four-game series with Cleveland that is expected to decide the championship.

In the Nationals New York increased her lead to four games by beating Chicago 9 to 7 while Brooklyn beat Pittsburgh 2 to 0. New York used Nehf, Douglas, Shea and Toney in the box against Chicago while Mitchell pitched Brooklyn to the victory over Pittsburgh, Morrison being the losing pitcher.

President Ban Johnson of the American League last night declared himself in favor of lower prices for the world series. He would restore the 50-cent bleacher seat with the highest priced ticket $5. With the major league season ending Oct. 2 it is probable the world series will begin Oct. 4.

DANNY FRUSH SAYS KILBANE FOULED HIM

Cleveland, Sept. 22.—Declaring that he had been deliberately fouled several times Danny Frush, of Baltimore, who was knocked out by Johnny Kilbane last Saturday in the contest for the featherweight championship, issued a signed statement today in which he claims the title. He said he was not only fouled in the first round when Kilbane hit him in the groin with his knee but later on when the champion continued fighting after the bell had rung and Frush had dropped his arms.

GOLFER'S GRIP HANDICAP? IT GIVES EMIL MEUSEL HOMERS

BY BOB DOLMAN.

Some batters grip the bat in a way that is different from the grip of a baseball player. The grip of a baseball player is different from the grip of a golfer. The grip of a baseball player is different from the grip of a golfer.

It is remained by Ray Meusel, home run hitter of the New York Giants, to demonstrate the correct grip on a baseball bat. He is a professional home run driver, and he has a grip on a baseball bat that is different from the grip of a golfer.
